

Bylaws

Article I: NAME

The name of this non-profit organization will be “American College of Clinical Engineering,” hereinafter referred to as the “College.” The College will also be known by the abbreviation “ACCE.”

Article II: PURPOSE

1. To establish a standard of competence and to promote excellence in Clinical Engineering practice.
2. To promote safe and effective application of Science and Technology to patient care.
3. To define the body of knowledge on which the profession is based.
4. To represent the professional interests of Clinical Engineers.

Article III: MEMBERSHIP

1. Categories

There shall be six (6) categories of membership: Individual, Fellow, Emeritus, Associate, Candidate, and Honorary Fellow, all with the respective rights and privileges as herein described.

2. Membership Criteria

Applicants and those seeking advancement in the College shall meet such standards, requirements, and qualifications as are established and approved by the Board. The standards, requirements, and qualifications for the Individual, Fellow, Emeritus, Associate, Candidate, and Honorary Fellow membership categories are set forth in the Regulations Governing Admission and Advancement which have been developed and modified from time to time by the Membership Committee and are subject to review, amendment, and endorsement by the Board. Notice of any proposed change in the Regulations Governing Admission and Advancement shall be provided to the Individual, Fellow, and Emeritus members not less than twenty nor more than sixty days prior to the effective date of such change.

A. Individual

An applicant for Individual member who meets the standards, requirements, and qualifications established by the Board and whose application has been approved by the Board following the recommendation of the Membership Committee shall be admitted to the College as an Individual.

B. Fellow

An Individual member may be advanced to the status of Fellow upon meeting such standards, requirements, and qualifications as are established and approved by the Board. Advancement of an Individual to the status of Fellow shall be voted by the Board upon recommendation of the Membership Committee.

C. Honorary Fellow

The Board may grant Honorary Fellow status to individuals who have rendered a career of distinguished service in or made significant contributions to the clinical engineering field.

D. Emeritus

An Individual or Fellow member may be advanced to the status of Emeritus by application and meeting such standards, requirements, and qualifications as are established and approved by the Board. Advancement of an Individual or Fellow member to the status of Emeritus shall be voted by the Board upon recommendation of the Membership Committee.

E. Associate

An applicant for Associate member who meets the standards, requirements, and qualifications established by the Board for Associate but does not otherwise meet the qualifications for Individual and whose application has been approved by the Board following the recommendation of the Membership Committee shall be admitted to the College as an Associate.

F. Candidate

An applicant for Candidate who meets the standards, requirements, and qualifications established by the Board for Candidate but does not otherwise yet meet the educational or experience qualifications for Individual and whose application has been approved by the Board following the recommendation of the Membership Committee shall be admitted to the College as a Candidate.

3. Voting

Only Individual, Fellow, and Emeritus members are entitled to vote on matters presented to the College membership.

Article IV: BOARD

1. Responsibility for management of the College is vested in the Board, which consists of ten (10) members: the President, the President Elect, the Vice President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the Immediate Past President, and four Members-at-Large. Board Members will be elected as specified in these Bylaws. Each member of the Board is entitled to one (1) vote.

2. Officers:

Officers are elected from the Individual and Fellow membership.

A. President

The President presides at all meetings of the College and the Board. The President is responsible for carrying out all orders and resolutions.

B. President Elect

The President Elect performs all duties of the President whenever the President is absent or otherwise unable to perform these duties. The President Elect will oversee the Member Services and Education functions including implementation of ongoing strategic objectives approved by the Board in these areas. The President Elect will perform other duties as requested by the President of the Board. After completing a term as President Elect, the President Elect shall become the President, unless the President is elected for a second term. In such a case, the President Elect is eligible to serve an additional term as President Elect. In the event that the President Elect can not assume the role of President at the end of his or her term as President Elect, a new President shall be elected from current members of the Board. The Immediate Past President and officers, other than the President, are eligible for this election.

C. Vice President

The Vice President will oversee the Marketing/Advocacy and Strategic Alliances functions including implementation of ongoing strategic objectives approved by the Board in these areas. The Vice President will perform other duties as requested by the President or the Board.

D. Secretary

The Secretary is responsible for keeping minutes of all membership and Board meetings. The Secretary also coordinates the membership roster, and is responsible for all notices sent to the College's membership and Board.

E. Treasurer

The Treasurer of the College is responsible for the receipt, disbursement, and record keeping for all of the College's funds. The Treasurer will present an accounting of income, expenditures, and fund balances at all Board meetings and the Annual Membership Meeting(s). The Treasurer will disburse funds only in accordance with policies established by the Board. The Treasurer will present an annual written summary of the College's financial status to the membership.

F. Immediate Past President

The President will become the Immediate Past President upon completion of the President's term of office. The Immediate Past President chairs the Nominating Committee.

3. Members-at-Large

Four (4) Members-at-Large are elected from the Individual and Fellow membership. Each Member-at-Large serves a two-year term. The Nominating Committee will try to ensure that in any one election only 2 Members-at-Large positions are being filled. Vacancies and special exceptions will be reviewed and approved by the Board.

4. Vacancies

Any office declared vacant by the Board, whether through resignation, death, disability, or inactivity, will be filled by the Board through appointment. New appointments will fill the term being vacated.

If the office of Immediate Past President becomes vacant, the Board will appoint a new Immediate Past President from among the former Presidents of the College. If none of the former Presidents are willing to serve, and appointment will be made from among the Fellows of the College.

All Board Members are expected to attend meetings regularly. The Board will assume that a Board Member has vacated his office if the Board Member misses two consecutive meetings without cause (as determined by the Board).

5. Quorum for Business

A. A majority of Board Members must be represented at a meeting to conduct business. Board Members may be represented either through actual presence at a meeting, through a telephone connection, through a proxy assigned to another Board Member, or through an absentee ballot must contain either an actual, a facsimile signature, or an e-mail from the Board Member. The validity of a proxy or absentee ballot will be determined by the officer presiding at the meeting.

B. A simple majority of the Board Members represented at the meeting is required to approve motions.

C. Emergency actions may be taken by the President whenever necessary to protect the assets or reputation of the College. If this becomes necessary, the President must consult with as many other Board members as practical before taking such emergency action. After such action is taken, the President must notify all Board members within five days. Transmission of a facsimile message or e-mail will be considered adequate notification under the provisions of this section.

6. Corporate Representative

The Board will designate a resident of the State of Washington to be its Corporate Representative within that state, to fulfill all the legal obligations required by that state. The Corporate Representative may hold another office in the College. The Corporate Representative is not a member of the Board (except by virtue of any other office held by that person), and has no responsibility for the governance of the College.

Article V: ELIGIBILITY AND TENURE OF OFFICERS

1. Officers and Members-at-Large must be members of the College in good standing at the membership level of Individual or Fellow.
2. No officer or Member-at-Large may hold more than one office at a time.
3. The President, President Elect, and Vice President will serve for a one-year term of office.
4. The Secretary and Treasurer will serve for a two-year term of office.
5. All Members-at-Large will serve for a two-year term of office.
6. The President, President Elect, and Vice President may serve two consecutive terms if elected for the office again.
7. The Secretary and Treasurer may serve two consecutive terms.
8. Member-at-Large may serve two consecutive terms.
9. A partial Term of Office assumed by appointment of the Board will not be considered a term under the provisions of this article.
10. The Term of Office of an elected officer or Member-at-Large begins on August 1 or 15 days after the closing date of the election, whichever is later. Closing date occurs by Board vote at the first Board Meeting after elections.

Article VI: VOTING

1. Each Individual, Fellow, and Emeritus member in good standing is entitled to one (1) vote on any business coming before meetings of the College, and in elections.
2. Votes may be cast in person, by written proxy, or by absentee ballot. The Board will establish policies to assure the validity of proxies or absentee ballots.
3. One-fifth (1/5) of the total number of Individual, Fellow, and Emeritus members in good standing must be represented at a meeting in order to conduct official business. Members may be represented whether through actual presence at a meeting, through a proxy assigned to another member, or through an absentee ballot presented to either the President or Secretary. A proxy or absentee ballot must contain a signature (either actual or facsimile) or an e-mail of the Member. The validity of a proxy or absentee ballot will be determined by the officer presiding at the meeting.
4. A simple majority of those voting is required to approve motions.

5. Elections are conducted as required to approve motions.

Article VII: FISCAL CONTROL

1. The Board controls all fiscal matters. Its actions are subject to review by the College membership.
2. The fiscal year will be the calendar year.
3. Dues are set annually by the Board, at a level consistent with an annual budget of expenditures and income, as well as other policies adopted by the Board.
4. The Board will establish a membership year consistent with the fiscal objectives of the College.

Article VIII: MEETINGS

1. An Annual Membership Meeting will be held during April, May, or June.
2. Board meetings will be held at least quarterly.
3. Special meetings of the Board can be called by the President, or upon written request of three members of the Board.
4. Notification of all Board meetings will be made by the Secretary at least 15 days prior to the meeting, either by mail, telephone, facsimile transmission, or e-mail.
5. Special meetings of the College may be called by the President or upon written request of at least one-fifth (1/5) of the voting members.
6. Written notification of the Annual Membership Meeting and any Special Meetings must be mailed to the membership at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting date.
7. Parliamentary procedures to be followed in business meetings of the College, its Board, and its committee's will be those specified in "Robert's Rules of Order, Revised".

Article IX: COMMITTEES

1. Standing Committees
 - A. The Membership and Nominating Committees will be standing committees. Standing committee members must be members of the College in good standing at the membership level of Individual, Fellow, or Emeritus.
 - B. Membership Committee

The Membership Committee will review all applications for membership to the College, and make recommendations to the Board regarding the qualifications of the applicants. The Membership Committee will also review all applications made by College members for a change in their membership category and will make recommendations to the Board regarding the applicant's qualification for the applied-for category. College members may apply for a change in member category from:

 - Candidate to Associate or Individual
 - Associate to Individual
 - Individual to Fellow or Emeritus

- Fellow to Emeritus

The committee chair will be appointed by the President, with the approval of the Board, for a two-year term. Four committee members will also be appointed by the committee chair, with the approval of the President, for staggered two-year terms. The Committee chair and the committee members may serve no more than two consecutive terms.

The Membership Committee will establish and maintain criteria and procedures for admission and resignation of members of the College in accordance with these Bylaws.

Upon recommendation by the Membership committee, applications for admission to the College will be forwarded to the Board for review and final approval. Upon acceptance by the Board, an applicant will become a member.

The Membership Committee considers and recommends to the Board candidates for elevation to Fellow status from among those Individual members who apply and who have held active membership in the College and professionally contributed to the College function for at least three years. Upon approval by the Board, a candidate will be elevated to Fellow status.

C. Nominating Committee

The Immediate Past President serves as Chair of the Nominating Committee. Four committee members will also be appointed by the President, with the approval of the Board, for a one-year term. These appointments will be made no later than January 1 each year. No more than one (1) member of the Nominating Committee, in addition to the Nominating Committee Chair, may be a member of the incumbent Board.

The Nominating Committee prepares a list of nominees for all offices which expire the following August 1. Only one nominee will be listed for each office. The committee will only list nominees willing to serve if elected and to attend Board meetings.

The Nominating Committee will report on its recommendations to the Board at a Board meeting to be held in February or March. The Board will review this report. Upon acceptance of the report, the nominees will be listed on the ballot as candidates for office. This list of candidates will be sent to the College membership with the notice of the Annual Membership Meeting.

At the Annual Membership Meeting, the floor will be opened for additional nominations. The Nominating Committee will confirm that any person nominated from the floor is eligible for office, and is willing to serve if elected and attend Board meetings. Upon confirmation, these nominees will be added to the ballot.

The Secretary will send election ballots to all Individual, Fellow, and Emeritus members no later than twenty-one (21) days after the Annual Membership Meeting. Members will be allowed fifteen (15) days after the mailing of the ballots to return them. The Secretary will count the ballots and notify the Board and all candidates of the results within fifteen (15) days after the closing date of the election.

Elected candidates will assume office on August 1 or 15 days after the closing date of the election, whichever is later. Closing date occurs by Board vote at the first Board Meeting held after elections.

2. General Committees

- A. The Board may create any other standing and special committees as may be necessary to carry on the business of the College. Committee chairs must be Individual, Fellow, or Emeritus members. Any member or non-member may serve as a Committee member.
- B. The committee chair will be appointed by the President, with the approval of the Board. A chair will serve for one (1) year and may serve no more than five consecutive terms.

- C. The committee chair will appoint members to the committee. All appointments expire at the end of the chair's term, but committee members may be re-appointed for an unlimited number of consecutive terms.
- D. The President will appoint a Board member to serve as a non-voting liaison member of each general committee. The President may appoint himself to serve in this role.

Article X: AMENDMENTS

- 1. Amendments may be proposed by any Board member, or by a written petition submitted by at least three Individual, Fellow, Emeritus members.
- 2. All proposed amendments to these Bylaws will be reviewed by the Board. Amendments proposed by Board members will be submitted to the membership only upon approval by the Board. Amendments submitted by written petition of the membership must be submitted to the membership, regardless of the Board's recommendation, unless the petitioners withdraw their proposed amendment.
- 3. All proposed amendments will be sent to the membership with the Board's recommendations.
- 4. A ballot containing the entire text of the proposed amendment will be sent to the membership by the Secretary no later than thirty (30) days after the Board meeting at which the amendment was considered. Members will have thirty (30) days after the mailing of the ballots to return them. An amendment will be adopted only if a majority of the total number of Individual, Fellow, or Emeritus members of the College in good standing approve.
- 5. The Secretary will promptly notify the Board and the membership of the voting results.

Article XI: INUREMENT AND DISSOLUTION

- 1. The assets of this organization will never inure to the benefit of any member of the College, nor will any assets or properties be used for the personal benefit of any member of any other person except in pursuit of the objectives stated in these Bylaws.
- 2. Should the College dissolve, all assets and property remaining after meeting the obligations of the College will be donated to a substantially similar non-profit corporation or organization having objectives compatible with those of the College.
